

At Almirall, we dedicate ourselves to finding real solutions for real needs. Our mission is to provide valuable medicines and medical devices to you and future generations. To do this, we complement our extensive research and development programme with a strategic partner network, whilst remaining firmly connected to all those whose lives we touch. Our firm commitment is to build long-lasting partnerships based on reliable and transparent information about our drugs and development projects, while always maintaining an ongoing dialogue that keeps us in touch with the real needs of patients and healthcare professionals.
