

LEARNING CONTRACT

(Negotiated between learner and supervisor)

The Clinical Nurse Specialist will have the knowledge and skills to educate patients in the management of symptoms of vulval conditions with the opportunity in clinic to prevent or detect recurrence and act upon these findings using clinical knowledge and judgement

Department
Learner's name
Named clinical supervisor
Other agreed supervisor
Type of service
Anticipated timescale
No of arranged clinic sessions/month
Actual completion date
Anticipated outcome
Responsibilities of learner	Ensure familiar and have knowledge of Trust and Department protocols/policies relating to the service Ensure mandatory training is up to date Acknowledge and accept own limitations working within NMC Code of Practice Utilise all resources which are made available for learning and professional development Be able to receive constructive criticism
Responsibilities of clinical supervisor	Provide time and support for learner Provide or signpost learner to relevant research/information to support evidence-based practice Facilitate learning and practice including any external learning outside of the department Provide constructive criticism and feedback Allow time for observation of DOPS, Cbd and Mini-CEX Allow time for sign off of competency framework, agree protected diary time if needed
Responsibilities of department/ward/line manager	Allow and support application for study time as appropriate Allow release and allocation on duty roster for nurse to attend relevant vulval clinic Source educational funding if needed for external learning to support Support supernumerary period if required

I agree with the above learning contract. (Place at front of clinical portfolio and place copy in HR file)

Learner's signature

Supervisor's signature

Line Managers's signature

Date

Date

Date

Agreed review date