Type of membership

Ordinary membership is open to registered nurses working in dermatology in the UK and Ireland.

Associate membership is open to all dermatology nurses outside of the UK and Ireland and any other healthcare professional with an interest in dermatology.

Email Alerts

We communicate regularly with our members via email alerts sending details on our events, BDNG news and other third party related information that we think may be of interest to you such as job vacancies, relevant courses or other dermatology related communications.

We also send promotional and non promotional emails on behalf of our sponsors/supporters. You can decide if you would like to receive these in the email alert opt in section of the application form.

We always include a link to opt out of receiving future emails if you change your mind. Please note, we never share your email details with others.
